The First Voyage of Sindbad the Sailor

At last we came to a little island that seemed very beautiful.

The passengers went ashore , lit fires, and were soon busy cooking and washing. Some began to eat, drink, and be merry, whilst others set out to explore the fair island. Suddenly the captain cried aloud from the ship, "Come abroad speedily. Leave everything and run for your lives. God be with you, for this is no island, but a huge whale floating on the surface of the ocean. On its back sands have settled and trees have grown. The heat from your fires has awakened it. It will plunge below the surface and all will be lost."
