SIKHISM & GURU GOBIND SINGH JI

Sikhism was founded by the first Guru, Sri Guru Nanak Devji as a reformation of the then prevailing religions infested by ritualisms, dogmas and superstitions. The word 'Sikh' is derived from the Pali 'sikha' or Sanskrit 'Sisya' meaning disciple. A sikh believes in One Immortal Being and The Guru Granth Sahib. The sikhs form a vibrant community not only in India but all over the world. The teachings of Nanak were taken further by his successors,

Guru Angad Dev ji, Guru Amar Das ji, Guru Ram Das ji

Guru Arjan Dev ji, Guru Hargobind ji, Guru Har Rai ji

Guru Har Krishan Ji, Guru Tegh Bahadur ji,

Guru Gobind Singh ji, Guru Granth Sahibji

Guru Gobind Singh, the tenth Guru was born in 1666 at Patna. He was ordained as a Guru at the tender age of nine, after his father Guru Tegh Bahadur laid down his life in the court of Aurangzeb for the cause of Kashmiri Pandits.

Guru Gobind Singh was one of the greatest personalities of all times. In him were united the qualities of a spiritual leader and a warrior. He stood for human freedom, secularism, democratic principles and pleaded for man's inalienable rights. He was a perfect man for the needs of the time. He left for his heavenly abode at the age of 42 in 1708 AD at Nanded, Maharashtra. Prior to this, he gave Guruship to Sri Guru Granth Sahib. For the Sikhs, Guru Granth Sahib is looked upon as embodiment of the Guru. It is not merely a collection of hymns but also is the 'Divine Word'. The message of love, truth, contentment, humility fatherhood of God, brotherhood, of man restraint on passions, purity of mind and body and search for the self form the subject matter of The Granth Sahib.

PRAYER -1

Oh Lord! In Thy Name lies the joy of living in peace;
Thy grace, is my only family.
Thy will, is my law;
All else to me is of little worth.

- Guru Nanak, Adi Granth, P. 16-17

PRAYER - 2

Fellow Devotees :
speak never a rude word to any -
For the Lord Eternal abides in all:
Break no heart -
know that each being is a priceless jewel.

- Sheikh Farid, Adi Granth, P. 129

PRAYER - 3

Pre-eminent among men is The Man
Whose egoism is shed in holy company;
One who believes in himself to be lowly and humble.
Is really supreme among all
Such a man shall view joy and sorrow alike.
Neither good actions nor evil shall touch him.

- Guru Arjan, Adi Granth, P. 226

PRAYER - 4

Brethren:
He alone is truly pure whose heart is pure
Who sheds the filth of falsehood ;
And who through self purification makes the body chaste.
He alone is truly pure who loves truth;
One whose heart rejoys in God's name shall
Alone attain the door of liberation

- Guru Nanak, Adi Granth, P. 468

PRAYER - 5

This prayer I offer Thee ;
Thou art the true Lord ;
Eternal protector
On Thee I ever meditate
All creation is Thine
And thou pervade in it.

- Guru Amardas, Adi Granth, P. 517

PRECEPTS

The blessed Lord said : Do your prescribed action. Action is better than non-action. Even the maintenance of the body would not be achieved if you do not perform the act of digestion. Therefore, without attachment, constantly perform action which is your duty. By performing action without attachment, man verily reaches the Supreme.

- Lord Krishna

Blessed are they who know, and whose knowledge is free from delusion and superstition.

Blessed are they who speak what they know in a kindly, open and truthful manner.

Blessed are they whose conduct is peaceful, honest and pure.

Blessed are they who earn their livelihood in a way that brings hurt or danger to no living thing.

Blessed are the tranquil, who have cast out ill will, pride, selfrightousness, and put in their place love, piety and sympathy.

Blessed are you when you direct your best efforts to self training and self control.

Blessed beyond measure are you when ye by this means unwrap the limitations of self hood.

And blessed finally are they who find rapture in contemplating what is deeply and really true about this world and their life in it.

- Lord Buddha

(3)

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace, Where there is hatred, let me sow love : Where there is injury, pardon;

Where there is discord, union; Where there is doubt, faith;

Where there is despair hope: Where there is darkness, light;

Where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console. To be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving, that we receive : It is in pardoning, that we are pardoned;

And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

- St. Francis of Assisi

(4)

Praise be to God, the Lord of all creatures,

The most merciful, the king of the day of judgement.

Thee do we worship, and of Thee do we beg assistance.

Direct us in the right way, in the way of those to whom,

Thou has been gracious, not of those against whom

Thou art incensed not of those who go astray.

- Prophet Mohammad

(5)

Where the mind is without fear and the head is held high;
here knowledge is free :-

Where the world has not been broken up in fragments by narrow domestic walls :-

Where words come from the depth of truth :-

Where tireless striving stretches its arms towards perfection:-

Where the clear stream of reason has not lost its way into the dreary desert sand of dead habit :-

Where the mind is led forward by Thee in ever widening thought and action :-

Into that heaven of freedom, my father, let my country awake.

- Tagore

O God, such are we and such are Thou-we are the sinners.

Thou the dispeller of Sins O Lord, beauteous is Thy abode,

Thou art the creator and the blesser of all - Thou blessest all with body and life force - We are meritless;

O Lord :-

Bestow Thy beneficence upon us, - Thou doest us good and we know not thy goodness- but Thou art very compassionate to us
- Thou art the giver of bliss, the builder of our destiny : Thou art our Eternal King and all creatures beg at Thy Door Save me, Thine child
O Lord, and keep me ever on the path of the saints.

- Guru Granth Sahib
